

Smith at Home Again!

Long Brick Store

The undersigned begs to call attention once more to the arrival of another large amount of

Ready Made Clothing

—AND—

FURNISHING GOODS,

GLOVES AND MITTENS,

Hats and Caps,

COLLARS AND CUFFS,

SHIRTS, DRAWERS, MEN'S SOCKS, Etc.

It is to be expected, from the magnitude of our purchases, that the people will find something more than an ordinary assortment to make their purchases from, and, further, it is reasonable to suppose, from the position which we occupy in the mercantile market, that bargains can be offered and are daily exhibited at the LONG BRICK STORE, sufficiently great to awaken an interest in the mind of every purchaser and throw around the Long Brick Store a charm that none can dispel.

Respectfully Yours,
E. SMITH & CO.

P. S.—I want to buy a few hundred bushels of CLEAN OATS, also I want Live Turkeys and Chickens, as soon as the weather is a little cooler, to ship.

Yours very Truly,
E. SMITH & CO.

O. W. Rowland,
Justice of the Peace, Insurance Agent, Notary Public and Conveyancer. May be consulted, during business hours, at the office of the True Northmen.

Golden Days.

Among the many excellent publications in this country, published expressly in the interest of the boys and girls of America, there is none that excels James Elverson's Golden Days. It is filled with interesting matter, consisting of continued stories of thrilling interest, but wholly unobjectionable, short sketches, useful information, fine illustrations and last, but not least, a complete exposition of the weekly eight-day school lesson. The NORTHERNER unhesitatingly recommends it as one of the best juvenile publications of this or any other country. It can be procured at Chappell's news depot in this village.

Wings and Stings.

This is the airy, stinging title of another sprightly amusing book by Palmer Cox. It is one of the QUEER PEOPLE series, and similar to its companion "Paws and Claws," of which we told you recently. This is one of the funniest and brightest books for youngsters we have ever seen. The illustrations are splendid and will make the boys and girls roar with laughter. The Boston Budget says: "As a holiday book nothing could be more appropriate, since nothing could confer greater pleasure upon the little ones." The National Republican says: "Every page is a picture and all the text music, a fountain of fun, never ceasing. It will make young eyes blaze." It will certainly be wonderfully popular. It is published by Messrs. Hubbard Bros., of Philadelphia, Chicago and Kansas City, to whom persons desiring a copy or an agency should apply.

Two Million Readers.

Are a great many to claim for one publication, but it is undoubtedly true that as many read the Youth's Companion every week. It has a world-wide reputation and is sent all over the globe where the English language is spoken or read. The reason for its large circulation is found in its exceptional value. It is always safe, pure, entertaining and instructive. Its influence upon growing boys and girls can hardly be overestimated. It is remembered affectionately by their parents, who read it a generation ago.

We would call the attention of our readers to the special offer of the publishers, an opportunity which comes but once a year. Any new subscriber to the Companion who will send $1.75 at once, can have the paper free to January 1, 1889, and a full year from that date. This offer includes four holiday numbers, for Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year's and Easter, all the illustrated weekly supplements and the annual premium list with 500 illustrations. Address the Youth's Companion, Boston, Mass.

Theophile Gautier, among his numerous cats, had one who ate at table with him, and who talked and entertained his callers until her master made his appearance. I can readily believe him, as I had a cat who talked incessantly. One of her tricks was to get on the window seat, outside, and demand to be let in. She was not always waited upon immediately, and when the door was finally opened to her, she would stop when half-way in, and scold vigorously. The tones of her voice and expression of her face were so exactly like those of a scolding woman that she caused many a hearty laugh by her vixenish tirades.—Helen M. Winslow, in Nov. Wide Awake.
